

Busy With Tea Plans

Their Membership Tea, held every February, is keeping members of the Philoptohos Society of St. Katherine's Greek Orthodox Church busy as the date Feb. 22 draws near. One of the major door prizes, a wine cooler, is being shown by Mrs. John A. Donlou, as two other committee members, from left, Mmes. Chris Karatzas, treasurer, and Clifford Argue, corresponding secretary, check out the invitation list.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Greek Society Plans Annual Membership Tea

Philoptohos Society of the St. Katherine Greek Orthodox Church will entertain at its annual Membership Tea on Saturday, Feb. 22, at the home of Mrs. Michael Halikis, 945 Grancia Altamira, Palos Verdes Estates.

This is one of the two major fund raising events of the year for the Society to aid the needy and the building fund for the Church.

Several hundred women from the entire southland are expected to attend the tea from 2 until 4 p.m.

The Philoptohos Society supports the non-sectarian Guadalupe Home for Delinquent Boys; St. Basil's Academy at Garrison, N.Y.; and St. Michael's Home for the Aged in Yonkers, N.Y.

Among the philanthropies on the local level aided by the Society are the Seaman's Hospital in San Pedro; Columbia School in Torrance; Spastic Children's Fund; Heart Fund and other health fund raising projects.

The second money-raising event sponsored by the Guild is the annual Fall Festival.

Stewart-Lindquist Vows Said

First United Presbyterian Church in Long Beach was the scene of the late afternoon wedding on Saturday, Feb. 13, when Miss Sharon Louise Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. La Mar Stewart, 5400 The Toledo, Long Beach, formerly of Torrance, became the bride of John David Lindquist. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Norman Lindquist of Escanaba, Mich. and the late Dr. Norman Lindquist.

Mr. Stewart escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a gown of angel skin peau trimmed in beaded Alencon lace. The gown was designed with an A line skirt, long sleeves and a regal court train. Her bouffant veil was held by a floral headpiece and she carried a bouquet of lilies and stephanotis.

Attired in peacock blue empire gowns with long full chiffon sleeves, attendants were Miss Sharon Boehmer, maid of honor; Misses Marilyn Fuller and Leni Meyer, bridesmaids. Capt. Robert Franco, USAF, performed the duties of best man and ushers were Donald

Mrs. John Lindquist R. Stewart, Phillip Henderson, Moosa Vallie, and Edward Anderson.

Rev. James R. Deemer officiated at the marriage service as James Graves played the nuptial music. Egon Grossberg was soloist.

After the ceremony, the 250 guests attended a champagne reception, buffet dinner and dance at the Alamitos Bay Yacht Club.

The newlyweds left immediately for Ann Arbor, Mich., to make their home.

The bride, a 1964 graduate of South High School, received her degree from the University of California at Los Angeles in 1968. At the university, she was a member of Chi Omega sorority; Anchors, a little sister of ATO fraternity, and a big sister of Sigma Nu fraternity. The new Mrs. Lindquist has been teaching in the Los Angeles School District.

Mr. Lindquist received his B.A. and M.A. degrees from the University of Michigan where he is now working on his Ph.D. in administrative education. He was on the varsity football teams in high school and at the university.

Couple Feted on Golden Day

Mr., Mrs. Conrad Hofferber ... Married 50 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Hofferber, 1624 Iris Ave., were guests of honor at a dinner party on Sunday evening, Feb. 9, at the Los Verdes Country Club in celebration of their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

The party was given by the couple's two sons and their wives, Dr. and Mrs. Allen Hofferber of Rolling Hills and Mr. and Mrs. C. Merle Hofferber of Missoula, Mont., who were unable to attend.

Also on hand for the party were three of the couple's five grandchildren, Scott, Lisa and Gary Hofferber of Rolling Hills. Other grandchildren are Terry and Connie Hofferber of Montana.

Gathered to offer congratulations were 50 relatives from Southern California, among them Mrs. Hofferber's three brothers and four sisters and their families and Mr. Hofferber's two brothers and their families.

The anniversary celebrants were married Feb. 5, 1919 in Hastings, Neb. In 1921, they moved to California living in Los Angeles and Hawthorne before coming to Torrance 10 years ago. Mr. Hofferber was with General Telephone Co. for 30 years, retiring about 10 years ago.

Mrs. Daniel Stevens Timms

McVey-Timms Vows

Miss Karen Theresa McVey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. McVey, 920 Kornblum, walked down the aisle of the Church of the Nazarene on the arm of her father at 1 p.m. on Jan. 25 to exchange her marriage vows with Daniel Steven Timms. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd E. Timms, 2828 Martha St., Torrance.

For her wedding, the bride wore an A line gown of peau de soie and Venise lace. It was fashioned with a reembodyered lace bodice and an applique chapel train. Her shoulder length illusion veil was secured by a peau de soie gardenia and lilies of the valley. The bride carried a bouquet of white gardenias and stephanotis.

Miss Pamela Appleby, as maid of honor, wore a gown of deep purple while bridesmaids, Miss Patricia Anne McVey and Mrs. Allen Amoson were in pale lavender. Their bouquets were of yellow gladioli.

Earl Garner performed the duties of best man and the 150 guests were seated by Christopher Stone and Lee Perkins.

Rev. R. W. Karnegay officiated at the marriage ceremony. A champagne reception was held at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Redondo Beach and the honeymoon was spent in Palm Springs.

The new Mrs. Timms is a 1967 graduate of Bishop Montgomery High School and her husband was graduated from Torrance High in 1966.

The new home will be in Redondo Beach.

Diana Smith Robert Gardner Married on Valentine's Day

In a four o'clock ceremony on Valentine's Day at the Wayfarers Chapel in Portuguese Bend, Miss Diana Lynn Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Harry Smith, 4306 W. 230th Place, became the bride of Robert Gardner. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Gardner, Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Attending the couple were Miss Debbie Rogers, maid of honor, and Gary Mumbulo, best man. The Rev. Loring Young officiated at the marriage which was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

The newlyweds left immediately for Cedar Rapids for a 10-day visit with the bridegroom's parents.

Upon their return they will establish a Torrance home.

The new Mrs. Gardner was graduated from South High in 1967. She attended El Camino College.

Her husband attended El Camino and the University of Southern California.

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1969

B-1

Future Bride

Nitz - Compare

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nitz entertained at a party recently at their Torrance home during which the engagement of their daughter, Christine Marie, to Nicholas Paul Compare, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Gray of Torrance, was announced.

The wedding will take place June 21 at the First Methodist Church.

The future bride is a senior at Torrance High School.

Her fiancé, a graduate of Torrance High School, returned recently from two year's duty with the United States Army in Vietnam. He is currently stationed at Fort Lewis, Wash.

Christine Nitz

Foster Parents Thanked

CATHY (Community Assistance to Homeless Youngsters) entertained at a Coffee at the Torrance Woman's Club to thank foster parents for the part they play in helping these youngsters. Those responsible for the "thank you" party and the speaker are from left, Mmes. Howard Hands, South Bay president of CATHY; Richard Rankin, representing the Woman's Club; Larry Smith, Junior Club; Rosemary DeCamp, guest speaker; and C. Henry Miller, Kathy chairman.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Hidden Talents On Display

Torrance Jaycettes will not only come up with their finest recipes when they cater the dinner for their husbands, the Jaycees, on Friday evening but they have promised surprise entertainment by parading their own talents, according to Lou Ann Sheaffer, Judy Markwell and Judy Dishon, chairmen. In a planning and plotting session are, from left, Mmes. Michael Zappitelli, president; Jim Altman, Mac Luna and Ron Toole. Gayle Battelle is in charge of the patriotic decorations, celebrating Washington's Birthday.

(Press-Herald Photo)